Local History Talk- the historical presence of Chinese in Central Queensland	Local historian Marilyn Dooley will give a fascinating insight into the people, places and events of the historical presence of Chinese in Central Queensland at a free talk at the Rockhampton Southside Library on Tuesday 21 March from 2pm-3pm. Enjoy an afternoon cuppa and listen to stories of miners and market gardeners, merchants and the river trade, cultural traditions and community participation; as well as conflicts and catastrophes. Dating from the 1850s to the present day, these stories are a significant chapter in the history and landscape of Central Queensland. Marilyn will share historic photographs and objects to illustrate her talk about The Affray at Crocodile Creek 1867, Ah Sue's gold discovery at Rosewood Diggings 1873, the Dawson River Flood 1875 and the mystery of the market gardener found in the long swamp near Lion Creek 1888. Thou-Walla Family Centre is located in the grounds of Irrawang Public School and supports families with children 0-8 years of age, with a focus on the early years. Last year Thou-Walla in partnership with the school had planned a Harmony Day event for the 21st of March. On the night of the 20th of March 2022, the school was vandalised and Thou-Walla was destroyed by fire. Since then the community has rallied behind our community centre. There has been countless acts of kindness and we have received over $35,000 in funding, to support the re-establishment of the Centre. Rosemary's Way at the Moncrieff Theatre	As part of Harmony Week 2023, Bundaberg Regional Council would like to invite you to attend a very special screening of the movie length documentary Rosemary's Way. The film celebrates the remarkable Rosemary Kariuki and one of the groups of vulnerable migrant women of suburban Sydney whose lives she helps transform from isolation to connection. Rosemary is our vibrant host over the course of a year, as we witness her reaching out to isolated migrant women from cultures as diverse as Iraq, the Congo and Peru. Rosemary is our ebullient facilitator; but the key characters are the migrant women who are drawn into her wake, and the Aussie women who agree to host them in their communities. We are moved and inspired by the stories of the women as Rosemary coaxes them to participate in new adventures and share insights into other cultures and makes them aware of their full rights as women now in Australia. We join in the women's wonder at the beauty of the Australian bush, where they gather under the trees to be Welcomed to Country by an Indigenous elder. And we witness their gradual transformation, as they find their voices and confidence in this new country that is now their home. Pre-screening will also welcome some of our local migrant community to speak about their culture, migration, and life as a migrant in Australia. Much like Rosemary, these stories of lived experience will transform our understanding of our migrant community and encourage greater connection. We will also welcome local group Bundaberg Friends for Refugees who have fundraised and applied together to bring a refugee family to Bundaberg. They will discuss this project and the refugee family on the night.	Bundaberg Regional Council	Community	25/03/2023	25/03/2023	4pm - 6:30pm	Bundaberg	Queensland
